

Debbie Platts
Owner, JWP Coaching

Debbie Platts, MBA, RPh, PCC is an ICF Certified executive, leadership and career coach with over 30 years' leadership experience and success in corporate operations and strategy at a Fortune 50 company. As Founder of JWP Coaching, she brings passion, compassion and a real world understanding of opportunities and challenges experienced by today's emerging and established leaders. She actively partners with clients as they gain awareness, design their journey with purpose, accelerate goal achievement and accomplish their vision of success.

As a registered pharmacist and dedicated health care professional, she continues to contribute to the profession through speaking engagements that focus on preparing and supporting current, and future generations of healthcare members, to assume leadership roles that contribute to delivering the highest quality of patient care.

Debbie continues to challenge herself by being an avid life-long learner and dedicated Pilates student.
